Our class continued to buzz with knowledge-based learning on our topic of transportation and communication this week. We've been studying radios, telephones and the telegraph, comparing and contrasting all three.

We've also been studying the history of space exploration and today we looked ahead into the future by studying Space X and Nasa's exploration plans for the near future.

For STEM studies the children finished their gliders and had an exciting afternoon testing their projects. There were cheers and enjoyment as the children launched their gliders into the air testing their construction skills. The final STEM project for the year is a challenge for the students to build a model train capable of carrying cargo.

Maths Matters

Our classroom has had a makeover with a new area of the class dedicated to maths! We've been studying, drawing, measuring and comparing 2D and 3D shapes, lines, angles, perimeter and area.

Make maths a part of daily family life, counting in 2's, 5's, 10's, reading time, prices, finding shapes around the home, or playing games like "I spy".

STEM

This week in class the students had to design and build a glider. They were given a budget for materials and had to work out their designs to stay within that budget. They had to also ensure that the glider would be able to fly. Lots of fun was had by the students testing their gliders.

TO GO

The students have a wonderful learning environment at Hill End Public school. The classroom has been transformed and updated. The students beautiful work is proudly on display. The teachers ensure that the children are able to learn and grow in every way possible.
