A happy bunch!

I have to say that the children all deserve praise for the happy and friendly manner that they have been showing at school. We've been focussing on positive feelings and actions as a part of our daily routines and Personal Development lessons. It's been a pleasure to come into work every day to teach such bright minds.

Well done kids!

End of year

With the end of the year approaching quickly we'd like to hold one more P&F meeting for the year – Wednesday 22nd November 3pm. We'll be talking about the upcoming end of year excursion and any other matters that parents/carers may have.

Attendance

Thank you to parents and carers for supplying absentee notes when children are away. It is a part of our duty of care for school staff to monitor and record student attendance.

School Bytes

At present many schools in NSW – including ours - are testing a new App that will allow parents to receive school messages, notes and newsletters. The app should make it easier for the school and parents to stay in touch, complete permission slips and keep an eye on news and school announcements.

STUDENT STORIES

The Horse Is Gone

By Telisha Bombardiere

In the morning Matilda was having breakfast. She saw a bird and it was singing in the treetops.

She was happy so she went outside to check the horses. She discovered that one was missing, and she was so scared.

It was dark outside but she jumped onto her horse to find Crownie.

She looked in the paddocks and she looked in the forest. She looked amongst the shrubs, but the horse was gone.

Suddenly she saw a tail and the horse was running to the trees. Matilda was happy, Hip Hip Hooray. She brought the horse home, she was so happy.

Matilda woke up and realised that it was only a dream.

Charlie

By Alex Mobbs

Charlie was not worried about his missing things.

Charlie went to work.

Charlie saw his best friend and his name was Alex.

Alex had the hammer and the phone, he had to get them back to Charlie.

The Lost Lambs

By Adalyn Rayner

It was a rainy day and Izzy was on her horse rounding up the sheep for shearing. Izzy had forgotten about the baby lambs.

Izzy got on her horse and went into the brown paddock.

She found the lambs hiding in the long grass.

Izzy caught the lambs and put them on her horse and took them back to their Mum.

The Lost Fairies

By Jordan Cuthbertson

In the morning Ivey was eating some salad for breakfast. After she had finished breakfast, she could hear her horse making lots of noise. She went up the stairs to check on her horse. While she was walking up the stairs, she heard a different noise. It was a baby horse. Ivey was so happy, she went to have a look.

She saw a baby horse and it was a girl. Ivey heard a strange noise. The noise got louder and louder. She looked out the window and saw that all the tiny fairies had gone. She was so scared. She saw the scary monster running away with all the fairies.

Ivey hopped onto her horse and looked outside to try to find all the fairies. She looked in all the mushroom houses and still couldn't find them. Ivey started to panic. "I wonder if I will ever find them" she said. Ivey decided to go into the forbidden forest. She knew that she was not allowed to go there but she had to find the fairies. Ivey had one more look in the mushroom houses then she went into the forbidden forest.

She looked around and saw that the monster was asleep, so she grabbed all the fairies and they all went home.
